

OCTOBER LECTURE

Queen Victoria's Wedding Dress, 1840. The Royal Collection Trust

FROM VICTORIA TO BEATRICE

A brief history of British royal wedding gowns
by Nicole Jenkins

An illustrated look at the history and impact of British royal wedding gowns over the last 170 years, including the styles worn by Queen Elizabeth II, the Duchess of Windsor, the Duchess of Sussex and Princess Beatrice. Choices on this celebratory occasion are highly personal and reveal details about the women who wore them, their status and intended roles and altered the way we dress for our own weddings.

Nicole Jenkins is a fashion historian: collector, curator, and the award-winning author of books 'Love Vintage' and 'Style is Eternal'. She is a costume designer by trade, currently completing her Master's degree in Cultural Heritage.

Virtual Lecture + Q&A session

Delivered by Zoom Meetings

Thursday 28 October, 1.00-2.15pm

Bookings: Eventbrite

For additional information on the lecture visit the Villa Alba website

www.villaalbamuseum.org

VILLA ALBA MUSEUM